LEVEL GREEN

The ground is thoroughly wet and wheat sowing, which is a short job, will soon be completed.

Alex Allen and wife, of Crooked creek, have been spending a few days with us.—Nathaniel Sewell, of the Sue Bennett Institute, spent an evening and night in our Holler last week in the interest of his school at London, which is one of the best in Kentucky. Mr. Sewell is an accomplished teacher, a fine scholar, editor, politician, Campbellite and splendid talker. We are always glad to have such visitors.

James Houk, of the firm of Houk & Adams, was here on business a few days since and while here he informed me that this was the first time in life that he had ever been permitted to gaze upon the wonders and beauties of Possum Holler. Surely, surely "Jim" has lost many of the pleasures of life.

Rev. D. R. Gentry has sold his farm and will migrate to Jessamine county about January 1st.

Drs. Price and Southard performed a very difficult operation on the daughter of Mr. Evans a few days since. The patient is getting on well.

Uncle E. Bullock, our Octogenarian, is suffering a great deal from cancer in the neck. Uncle "Lish" is the only survivor of the five Bullock brothers, so noted for their long lives; and strange to say the four deceased, died within a very short time of each other. Until very recently uncle "E" has tended his gristmill on Skaggs creek and done other work, but the time will come when the stoutest must lay the "Blade and Hoe to Rest" and retire from service.

It seems to have cleared up wet and warm and the grass is growing "full tilt" this morning.

We have a fine crop of bunch beans, now in use, produced from seed raised this year. I have a crop of turnips doing a good business where I raised an early crop of taters and then a crop of tobacco.

I purchased from a seed man in Illinois, a lot of garden seeds and among them was a small seed which came up in my cabbage patch. It looked at first very much like a sorghum plant, but it soon began branching and on last Wednesday I cut 70 stalks produced from that one seed and I found my horses to be very fond of it. And now I am firmly of the opinion that one-half acre of rich land either sown thin or planted early would make all the feed for winter use any common farmer would need; for two or three crops can be harvested, if early sown.—(This is no lie).

I take the "weak trembles" every time I look at my tomato vines and see how fast the fruit is disappearing. Well such has to be done every year. So autumn and winter will come for all the living, even man must drop his summer garment and don his winter apparel and finally take up his abode with the things that used to be.

One hundred years ago but few lived that now enjoy life; one hundred years hence barely one in ten thousand of this innumerable host will be here. Where were we before we go when we leave? These questions are hard to answer—can't be done satisfactorily.

Since writing the above we have been called to witness one of the saddest scenes of our life; viz the funeral of Mrs. Massey Doan nee Held, who is thought to have bro't on her own untimely death by pistol shot in the head. Her husband says he was about two hundred yards from their house gathering chestnuts when he heard the report of a gun at his house and hastening thither he found his wife lying on the bed unconscious and pistol shot in her forehead and a pistol lying near her.

BUCK VARNON.

A man bought a tract of land in a mountain region. On it was a wild stream which rushed down in a fierce torrent, through deep chasms and gorges, carrying destruction to the valleys below. The owner built a flume in the torrent, and now it flows quietly down the slopes and turns great mills in the valley. Thus the wild stream became a source of useful energy, and its power, no longer destructive, became useful. That is what we should do with a bad temper—tame it, bring it under discipline and compel it to use its energy for good and not for evil. The secret of such a change is in getting the mastery of one's self. We have high authority for saying that "he that ruleth his spirits is better than he that taketh a city."

GOES LIKE HOT CAKES.

"The fastest selling article I have in my store," writes druggist C. T. Smith, of Davis, Ky., "is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, because it always cures. Mothers rely on it, best physicians prescribe it, and all druggists guarantee satisfaction or refund price. Trial bottles free. Regular sizes 50c. and $1.

The diplomatic corps at Port au Prince proposed a cessation of hostilities in order to arrange preliminaries for peace in Hayti.

CRAB ORCHARD.

J. C. McWhorter is visiting his mother, in Clay county.

Mrs. Wm. Stuart is visiting friends in North Carolina.

A. W. Buchanan left here on the 9th, going to New Mexico for his health.

Mrs. Charley Marshall, of Ripley, Tenn., is visiting her mother, on Flat Lick.

Mrs. Sam Higgins and sweet little babe, of Somerset, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Kittie King.

Miss Nannie Watson, of Stanford, is spending some time with her grandparents, Wm. Watson and wife.

Joe Payne is with homefolks but will return to Tennessee in December, where he has the promise of work, for a railroad company.

Rev. K. D. Noa and Thornton Pollard, two old G. A. R. men, went to Washington to meet with the old soldiers, returned on the 11th.

Mrs. M. E. Fish, and daughter, Miss Allie, left on Sunday night last for Knoxville, Tenn., to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Black, thence to California to visit her son, Guy.

Stuart Myers, an old citizen of this place, died at the Gover house on Sunday night last, after a lingering illness. He leaves a son, Dr. Wm. Myers, of Thorntown, Ind., who was with him in his last hours and one daughter, Mrs. A. H. Hisey, of Kansas City, Mo., who never reached here till after her father was dead. His remains were interred in the Crab Orchard cemetery on the 13th.

Simon Middleton, Jr., has gone to Frankton, Ind., where he got work in a glass factory.

He is the youngest son of S. A. Middleton, and seemed to realize that there was not much inducement in the town of Crab Orchard for young men who want to get a start in the world. We wish him success in his undertaking, and think there are a few more in our town yet who might find a more profitable field of labor than this place affords.

Died.—On the morning of the 15th, Mrs. Jeff Holman. She was taken sick about four weeks ago, with what the doctors thought malarial fever. She continued to grow worse, till at last the physicians pronounced it quick consumption.

She had been married a little less than two years, and leaves a little babe nine months old, and a young husband, sister, brother and father to mourn her loss which they all feel deeply, but they sorrow not without hope for she had, as Mary of old, chosen that better part, she had been a consistent member of the Baptist church from childhood, always ready to give her service to any church work that came up.

May all those who mourn her death be able to find comfort in the thought, that they, by following the example she left, may meet her in the sweet bye and bye, where parting is no more.

CONWAY

L. C. Smith closed a deal with F. M. Carter last Saturday for a large boundary of timber and a saw-mill.

Mr. Smith is a hustler and we are glad to have him in our midst.—Mrs. Mat Grinstead, of Scaford Cane, and Mrs. George Shockley, of Berea, were summoned on the 8th, to their father's, John Owens, who lives in Knox county, to attend the funeral of their brother, John.

George Hardin was here from Ford, Sunday, and reported to his old friends and neighbors of having a fine boy at his house.—W. C. Vires, of Scaford Cane, was here Monday and reports that he has the Champion stalk of corn.

It has six ears of corn well matured, ranging from 5 to 9 inches in length.—Colby Haggard is here from Clark county, to sell the Haggard farm on Scaford Cane.—Mrs. Frank Blazer, of Scaford Cane, left some days since to spend some weeks with relatives in Knox county.—The question has been asked us several times if we knew how our friend, Harry Blazer, was getting along, who moved from our midst some time ago to Ohio. We have been informed by his brother, Frank, that he is getting along nicely, nursing a six-weeks-old baby girl and three badly mashed toes.

The citizens of Scaford Cane have somewhat quieted down since the scrap over the school election. My dear neighbors, it is better to have no election at all like we did, than to get so wrought up over such an uncomfortable office.—Mr. Thessdas Dykes returned home last Friday, Mrs. Dykes still remaining with her son.—Oscar Hayes, who is attending school at Berea, passed through here early Saturday morning, on his way to the bedside of his mother, who is very sick at Wilder.—Some people cannot tell the truth even when it is to their own interest. So it seems to be false about Robt. Linville purchasing the Haggard farm on Scaford Cane, notwithstanding he paid a dollar to have the deed drawn but the trade seems to have been between Robert alone.—On the 6th John Owens, son of Elijah Owens, a late citizen of this part, now of Knox county, was killed in a coal mine in W. Va., by falling slate while explaining to the miners how to use a machine that he was selling for the purpose of mining coal. His remains were brought to Knox county, to his father's where funeral services were held on the 9th.—Allen McKittrick is at Mullins Station, at work for L. C. Smith.—Died, on the 3rd, Miss Dora Vires, of Scaford Cane. Funeral services were held on the 4th, at her home and was interred in the Vires cemetery near by.

Die.—On the morning of the 15th, Mrs. Jeff Holman.

She was taken sick about four weeks ago, with what the doctors thought malarial fever.

She continued to grow worse, till at last the physicians pronounced it quick consumption.

She had been married a little less than two years, and leaves a little babe nine months old, and a young husband, sister, brother and father to mourn her loss which they all feel deeply, but they sorrow not without hope for she had, as Mary of old, chosen that better part, she had been a consistent member of the Baptist church from childhood, always ready to give her service to any church work that came up.

May all those who mourn her death be able to find comfort in the thought,

ONE GOOD ROAD ADVOCATE
STILL ALIVE.

Where are all the good road advocates who preached good roads so much through the SIGNAL and from every available article suitable to sit on around Mt. Vernon, are they dead? Did the election on the bond issue kill them all? Then none of them were Democrats, for being beaten at election never kills nor wounds Democrats. They have practically ceased and one would think the road question forever settled; that the people of Rockcastle had decided to have no roads. Even Buck Varnon of Possum Holler, has laid down his road horn, since he has been taking Crawford's treatment, and seems to think that the roads and Betsy are good enough for him.

In our neck of the woods there has not been much said about good roads, yet we have read with much interest and listened eagerly to the suggestions of others putting into practice such advice as was rendered which circumstance would admit. We believe that we have the best roads in the county, and we believe too, that it is due the untiring energy and good judgment of our overseers and the faithfulness of the men who did the work so cheerfully.

It is said in the SIGNAL that Mr. J. J. McCall has done the best work on his section of road of any overseer in the country. I wonder how many days Mr. McCall worked on his road. I am of the opinion that others have done as good work as he.

Mr. Jones, of this place, has worked 22 days this year on his road. He has graded it up in the middle and ditched it so well that no water will stay long in the road where it falls and I think he deserves the praise of doing the most and best work of any overseer in the county.

If Mr. McCall can beat this let him say so and Mr. Jones and myself will step over and take a look at his road and if Mr. Varnon will meet us there we will all try Mr. Crawford's treatment, provided brother Buck will bring a good supply with him.

We are heartily in favor of good roads, and more than that, we are in favor of building one turnpike at least, through the county, and we think the one to build is from Boone's Gap, by the way of Mt. Vernon, to Level Green. This would serve the double purpose of educating the people on the turnpike question and at the same time would be so useful and so beneficial to all the people of the county that all would rejoice at the good work and clamor for more pikes and more bonds.

Keep this before the people, like Mr. Moody's young preacher, who preached from the one text till the people practiced what he preached.

We will now stop here and see if Mr. Editor will insert this and close by saying that our good overseer, M. R. Jones, would not be up at Mt. Vernon talking to the editor about what he read on a tombstone in Madison county, only that he might let the people know that he had traveled abroad—out of Rockcastle.

BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXIONS.

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from sallowness, pimples, blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at all drugstores.

FOR CONGRESS.
HON. GEORGE G. GILBERT,
OF SHELBY.

H. H. HENNINGER,
Of Wayne county is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce the
HON. T. Z. MORROW
as a candidate for Circuit Judge, in this,
the Twenty-eighth Judicial district, subject to any action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce the
HON. J. N. SHARP
As a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney,
subject to the action of the Republican party.

ATTORNEY GENERAL KNOX,
Tuesday night spoke in Pittsburgh
on "The Commerce Clause of the Constitution and Trusts." He said that overcapitalization is the chief noxious feature of trusts. He insisted that trusts should be subject to visitorial supervision. Mr.
Knox declared that Congress had not exhausted its power in enacting the Sherman act. He stated that a law which only covered contracts and combinations in restraint of trade, as defined by the common law, would exclude all hurtful combinations and conspiracies, and that if enforcing the law the rule of guidance should be whether the contract in question is or is not reasonable.

In this issue appears the announcement of Robt. B. Waddle, of Somerset, as a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney of the 28th Judicial district. Mr. Waddle is a lawyer of exceptional ability, a fine young man, and will, no doubt be a strong man in the race.

THE announcement was made from the White House yesterday,
that the anthracite miner's strike is settled, a common ground of agreement having been reached between the mine workers and operators.

SCRAPS.

(BY JET.)

"The roar of a waterfall is produced almost entirely by the bursting of millions of air bubbles.

No two on earth in all things can agree:

All have some darling singularity.

She—What happened when you offered to kiss her tears away?

He—She cried worse than ever.

A man named Spunk has just married a western girl named Spink.
How they have twisted it up to be sure! Past tense spink; present tense spunk; future tense spank.

"And what brought you to this?"
asked the good man who was passing through the police station.
"De hurry up wagon," replied the tough boy behind the bars: "did you t'nk I come in a tallyho wit
somebody on top tootin' a horn?"

Husband (mildly)—You should remember, my dear, that the most patient person that ever lived was a man.

Wife (impatiently)—Oh, don't talk to me about the patience of that man Job. Just think of the patience poor Mrs. Job must have had to enable her to put up with such a man.

In a consignment of Western range horses from Colorado received at the stockyards, Sioux City, Iowa, there was a curiosity in the shape of a sorrel gelding with eight legs. The horse is owned by John Huey and John Wenzel of White Pine, Col., and they had raised him. They refused $1000 for him.
The animal is six years old and weighs 900 pounds.

"My employer was a religious man," said Mr. Tarr, "a regular protracted-meeting singer. Sometimes on Sunday mornings a negro called Uncle Jack would try to buy a pint of liquor, and the dealer
would sing with tune and fervor:
"I don't sell no rum on Sunday,
Glory hallelujah!"

Turn the spigot and help yourself.
And put the money on the shelf,
Glory Hallelujah!"

"Give him plenty of rope," quoted the stranger, "and he'll hang himself." "Mebbe he will,"
returned Alkali Jake, "but out here we don't take no chances. If we give him the rope, you bet he'll make a sure-thing job of the hanging."
—Paris Kentuckian.

Telephones are a blessed thing
when they are healthy, but when its liver is out of order, it is the worst nuisance on record—hearing lots of conversations you are not entitled to. For instance, we answered the bell after it had rung
several times, and a sweet little female voice said: "Are you going to receive tomorrow?" We answered that we were going to receive all the time. Then she asked what made us so hoarse? We told her we had sat on a draft from the bank, and it made the cold chills run over us to pay it. Then she said she would have to discard her neck and short sleeve dress,
as she couldn't stand a draft.

If every marriage was a success,
if every husband was a perfect being who continued to make love to his wife with unabated fervor through life, paid her bills without murmuring and refrained from criticizing her faults, any woman
would be justified in sitting down and tearing her hair because fate had doomed her to remain single.

Unfortunately, however, such is not the case. The ideal marriage is just as rare as the ideal anything else, and if the old maid has missed
the seventh heaven of earthly bliss,
she may at least congratulate herself upon having also escaped purgatory. A compromise may not be brilliant, but it is generally safe.

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF THE 28TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney subject to the action of the Republican party.

This announcement would have been made at an earlier date but for the fact that I gave way to Mr. G.
W. Shadow who desired to become a candidate for that position. Since he has declined to become a candidate for that office, I now feel that it is not inappropriate for me to carry out my original intentions. I shall at a future day in person and by publication
give you the reasons why the Republicans of this district should give me
the nomination.

Respectfully,
R. B. WADDLE.

Commissioner's Sale.

Rockcastle Circuit Court
Cabinet, Basye & Co., Plaintiffs,
vs.

W. M. Meadows, etc., Defendants.

By virtue of a judgment and order
of sale of the Rockcastle Circuit Court, rendered at the September, 1902, in the above styled cases, for the sum of $201.72, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent,

One of the foulest murders ever committed in Lexington, was that of
A. B. Chin, by the boy tramps, Claude O'Brian and Earl Whitney, who shot the old man to death because he refused to give up his money.

A student of the Chicago Directory, says an exchange, find that there are in the city 700 Adams and not a single Eve. But of Cains there are 55 and Abels 8. The city is well supplied with patri-archs—100 Abrahams, 19 Isaacs and 600 Jacobs. And of Solomons there are 110. There are 15 Darlings and but two men whose name is Kill, and there is a total of 90 Loves, but not a Lover, although there is one Mormon. The most abbreviated name is Re. Some of the other odd names are Papa, Morningstar and Paradise. The only man in Chicago, who, according to the directory, is a Fake, is Fred L., one of the Assistant State's Attorneys. It seems that, after all the men in Chicago are divided in about the same proportion as the men of the world, according to New Testament inferences. There are 25 Hopes, 7 Faiths and one poor, lonely Charity among the names. There are 8 Pains and only one Well.

will not disappoint you.

JOHN LESLIE WELSH.—Last Saturday in Louisville, John L. Welsh, the 8 year old son of Pat Welsh, was crushed to death by a car. The little fellow was playing under some cars on the siding near his father's residence and had gone under a car, when a switch engine backed against it. The child made an effort to crawl from under the car but was too late. The wheels passed over his body cutting it almost in two. John L. was an exceptionally bright child and his untimely death is a sad blow to his parents who have the deep sympathy of our people.

The boy was named for his grandfather, John Welsh, and Leslie Keeley, the famous Keeley cure man.

A very sad occurrence took place last Sunday afternoon at the home of Andrew Doan, of near Level Green, when Mrs. Doan was found lying on the bed with a bullet hole through her head. Her husband has this explanation to give, which to some is not very satisfactory as a warrant of arrest has been issued for him: "That he and his wife had been playing hull-gull with chestnuts and that she had won all the bad and that he got up and left the room stating that he would go and gather some more; when only a short distance away from the house heard a shot and on returning found his wife a lifeless form." At the best, it is very sad affair, but for a man to take the life of a good woman, is to awful to imagine and we trust that the suspicion now resting on Mr. Doan is unfounded and that he will be able to show himself an innocent man.

COLLEGE CHAPEL, OCT. 24, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch"

On the evening of October 24th at the College Chapel, Miss Alice Caldwell Hegar's charming story, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" will be presented by Mr. Harry Allen Dennis. The press of Kentucky, and of Louisville especially, have praised his work highly. The Mountain Echo of this week says: "Mr. Harry Allen Dennis, the noted Kentucky Impersonator, gave one of his very pleasing renditions of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," at the Farris Opera House last Friday evening to an appreciative audience. Mr. Dennis rendered the piece in a very artistic manner and all who heard him were well pleased.

Laughter, prolonged and uproarious has greeted the rendition of the story wherever Mr. Dennis has given it. Full of bright, sharp speeches, ludicrous situations and homely pathos, the recital of the joys and mishaps of the Wiggs family furnishes an evening of the keenest enjoyment. Those who have read the book may be surprised to learn that the cabbage Patch is not a fictitious but a real place and that the characters are real people. Only one who was well acquainted with both the scene and the people could truthfully portray the various characters. Mr. Dennis has known them all his life. Himself a writer of clever stories and poems, an actor of ability and experience, he makes the people of the Cabbage Patch live vividly before his audience.
